“ Dear Daddy,

I miss you so much and cannot believe that almost three years have passed since that terrible day in me, mommy and uncle vans life (amongst many others). You are on my mind and by my side so tough and I wish I could express the pain that I really feel and how empty you being gone has left a place in my heart. Your grandbaby and great grand daughter misses you so much. I know you can't read this the way I can, but I know you can feel my words.

*I Love you,
Tia*

“ To the Family of Mr. Lavender Burris,

I lived across the hall from Mr. Burris for the past three years. Mr. Burris was a wonderful neighbor and I believe a good friend. Both my husband and I are at a loss in hearing of his death. Mr. Burris showed a lot of consideration and love to our entire family! HE WILL TRULT BE MISSED. Rest in peace, for you truly knew how to be a neighbor and treat your fellow man.##imported-begin##Gail A. Davidson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It's so hard to lose someone we love so dear to death. It seems so unfair that they should go when we need them so much in our lives. Their death can leave us with much hurt and pain and often feeling lost and bewildered. What has happened to them? Will I ever see them again? The Bible answers those questions at John 11:11-14 where Jesus likened death to sleep and John 5:28,29 where Jesus says he will awaken those sleep in death by calling them out from the grave...just like he did Lazarus (John 11:43,44; Ecclesiastes 9:10) What a wonderful hope we have of seeing our loved ones again! May your hearts find comfort in knowing what Jesus will do again shortly. Yes, all things will take place exactly as promised by him. (John 11:25) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the Burris family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. The Bible says of the Almighty: "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."-Ps. 34:18.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Burris family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
