“ My sincerest condolences to your family on the loss of Lee. I worked with Lee at Rassini and he was perhaps one of the kindest persons I have met. He was always so willing to help people and I so enjoyed talking with him. I am saddened by his passing but having seen his suffering I know he is in a better place. God bless you Lee.##imported-begin##Cheryl Wilson##imported-end##

“ I worked with Lee at Rassini, until I retired in 2006. He was always cheerful and pleasant to everyone, a pleasure to work with and to pass some time in conversation. I enjoyed knowing him, he will be missed. My sincere condolences.

“ I was so sorry to read about the loss of Lee and I would like to extend my condolences to your family. Having to cope with the loss of a loved one can be difficult, but God has promised a time when we can see our loved ones again (John 5:28,29). Until that time please know you can rely on God for comfort (Psalms 55:22; 2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##T. Cherry##imported-end##

“ Stephanie you are in my prayers, I'm at a loss for words so I state this prayer for you and the family. God Bless you.

God of our life,
there are days when the burdens we carry chafe our shoulders and weigh us down;
when the road seems dreary and endless,
the skies gray and threatening;
when our lives have no music in them,
and our hearts are lonely,
and our souls have lost their courage.
Flood the path with light, run our eyes to where
the skies are full of promise;
tune our hearts to brave music;
give us the sense of comradeship with heroes and saints of every age;
and so quicken our spirits that we may be able to encourage the souls of all who journey with us on the road of life, to your honor and glory.
