“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ I want to send a message of love to the entire Jackson/Palmer family. God is faithful and He has not left us without a Comforter. My prayer is that this family will reap a harvest of love and support, because of all the lives that you have enriched over the years through your love and service. Michael was a very special person in my life. He was such a tremendous contributor to our Male Chorus. In fact, he was the person I consulted with to select the perfect songs for the group to sing. I guess he's been helping me my entire life. When I was about 7 or 8 years old he took time with me trying to teach me how to shoot a basketball. I struggled. He never put me down. He treated me the way I would have wanted a big brother to treat me if I had one. Well, thank God, I had one. I will miss big brother Mike.##imported-begin##Eld. Jonathan M. Wynne##imported-end##

“ To Felicia Jackson and Family,

*The angels are always near to those who are grieving, to whisper to them that their loved ones are safe in the hand of God. (Quoted in The Angels' Little Instruction Book by Eileen Elias Freeman, 1994)
May God surround and keep you and your loved ones in His perfect love, peace and strength.*

You and your family are in my prayers.

I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved husband. There is no word that can take away the pain and the emptiness. But know that those who love you are praying for the divine lord to grant him eternal mercy. May God comfort and be with you and your family at this difficult time.

“ Dear Felicia,
I just learned of your husband's death. I want to extend my deepest sympathies to you and your daughters. Mike was so well-respected and everyone always had such kind things to say about him. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Words feel inadequate at a time like this ... just know you are loved and supported by many.
With love,

“ Dear Family: The Bible teaches us that in this life, this system of things, we will sometimes experience unexpected and sometimes devastating things. It says, in part, at Ecclesiastes 9:11.. 'time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all". Still death, however it comes, at any time or any age is an enemy of mankind because it robs us of those we love so dearly. I realize that words may offer little comfort at this time, but hopefully in the days and weeks ahead you will consider God's promises to mankind regarding this 'enemy'. Our Loving Creator (Psalm 83:18) promises us that 'death' will be destroyed...forever (1 Corinthians 15:26). And He will lovingly resurrect our loved ones who have died, including Lennie. (John 5:28,29; 11:25,26) Anything causing us pain, tears and sorrow will be gone forever (Revelation 21:4). So, even though there are tears today, I hope that future days will help you to see that God promises a beautiful tomorrow. (Titus 1:2) My deepest heartfelt sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###
