“ *I miss you so much little brother. It's still very hard to believe you're actually gone. Even though your Spirit lives on in a much better place we still wish you were physically here with us. Enjoy the Heavens and be there to greet me when I cross over.
Love Eternally,

“ Dear EL and Smith Family,

I do not pretend to have the right words that can ease your pain and loss during this difficult time. It goes without saying that my heart and prayers go out to you. Just as each of you has embraced me, Leon did also. I remember the first time EL brought me to meet Leon almost 7 yrs ago. He greeted me with a smile that went from ear to ear and an enormous hug. Leon did not know me from Adam and yet he welcomed me with open arms. I saw very quickly within your family why Leon was able to embrace me as he did. It was obvious that each of you have shown each other how to love and be loved. That very love has spilled over into the world around us and for that, I thank you.

I have to say that I will miss Leon. I will miss his laugh, smile, and carefree spirit; that I can not deny. But I also can not deny that I take comfort in the fact that I will someday, just as you will, see him again. Leon has always been a beacon of light, but today his light is brighter than ever. It is his light that will shine before you and I as we each continue on our journeys. We will know that it is his light that will illuminate our paths, and will ultimately lead us to be with him again, in the very place he is now, in God's loving arms. Today I pray that on your journeys each of you will lose your breath for just a moment, as you are reminded and realize again the immense love God has for Leon and you for eternity.

Love always,

“ *To Leslee and family, I just want to take the time to send my love. At moments such as these, one never really know what to say or the best way to say it, and I dont want to act as if I have the right words to make you feel better. But what I do know is that you are a special family to me and that my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Leon was such a funny and loving guy, who always had a smile on his face when I saw him. I know he will be missed by everyone that he came in contact with in his life. May you be strong during this time and know that I love you always
