“ Dear Davenport family, I am saddened to learn of your recent loss. It is times like this that the scriptures can bring us comfort. At Psalms 119:50, 52,76 we are told "This is my comfort in my affliction, for your own saying has preserved me alive. I have remembered your judicial decisions from time indefinate, O Jehovah, and I find comfort for myself. May your loving kindness serve, please to comfort me, according to your saying to your servant." Please accept my sincere condolence.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel when we lose someone. The Bible tells us that there is hope for our dead loved ones. It makes this promise: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." (Psalms 37:29). Just think about the fond memories and the fact God offers and promises a wonderful hope for our loved ones and doing that will help ease the pain of your grief so that in the coming days you will have comfort and peace .(Isaiah 26:19)###imported-begin###V Williams###imported-end##
