“ To Lamaine & the Lockhart Family - My condolences goes out to each and everyone of you. You have my deepest sympathy. Just know that the Lord will make a way and He will help you through your time of grief. Try to remember the good times you each spent with your father, brother, grandfather, great grandfather, uncle, cousin and friend. Know that his legacy will continue to live on inside you and that he's not to far away. ~“Death leaves a heartache no one can heal,love leaves a memory no one can steal”~

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ Be encourage I know that this is a difficult time for you all, especially so close to Thanksgiving. Just think about how much time God gave you all to make memorable merories with uncle L.C. He has enjoyed his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Even though we know that we are not born to live here on earth forever, it is so hard to see our love ones leave us, but God knows what's best. And He decided it was time for uncle L.C. to depart from this life into another life. Even though I haven't seen him in many, many years I enjoyed the conversations we had over the telephone these last few years, scrolling down memory line. Talking about people I knew and some I didn't have the slightest ideal about, but I enjoyed talking to him. He is the last of grandmama Collie and granddaddy Lionel children, but nevertheless he was loved just like we loved Ernest and uncle Piggy. not to mention how I loved my daddy James Carroll Lockhart better known as Whop. You all stand together and hold each other up and if their is one that is weaker than the other give that one more love because that is what it's going to take to get through this. I love you my cousins be blessed and I promise you it may seem hard now but God will give you the strenght to get though this too. "This to shall pass". Love you all much.##imported-begin##Aretha Lockhart-Poindexter##imported-end##
