“ You and Johnnie are in our thoughts and prayers. We love you very much and even though we couldn't be there physically we were very much there in spirit. When it is all said and done and the people have gone about their business, you can reflect on the good times shared with your dad and remember he is not gone, he is just away. Love you##imported-begin##Evangeline McCalvin and Bernice Robinson##imported-end##

“ Tomika-- Our prayers are with you & your family at the troubling time. You know I lost my father in 2009 so I'm here to remind you that the sadness never goes away. But, the memories will last a lifetime. We have to remember our Dads are in a much better place than you and I, they're no longer suffering. We just have to continue to pray each day that tomorrow will be better than today. Know that if you ever need anything my family and I are only 11 digits away, you can call anyone of us anytime!
Love you to pieces,

“ Nothing words can say, nothing a friend could do, could make up for the passing of one so dear to you. But it may bring some measure of comfort and relief to know that sympathetic thoughts are with you in your grief. May the comfort of Jehovah and his son Jesus, bring peace to your hearts now and through the days ahead. May your tears of sadness turn to smiles as you remember the times shared with Mr. Willis. Isaiah 41:10&13. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Tonia- You and your family are in my prayers during this trying time. Remember God is too wise to make mistakes. Your dad will be with you in spirit. “I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day” (2 Timothy 1:3). Your dad will be missed. Love you.##imported-begin##Erica##imported-end##

“ Hello Tonia,

My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your mom. I know all too well the heartache and pain of losing a parent and can only pray that God sends comfort and peace your way. Continue to allow His healing hand to carry you through this difficult time. As always, I love you deeply...always have and always will.

“ Dear Family: When someone we love dies it breaks our hearts. We try to accept it as 'a part of life' as we struggle to move on without them in our lives. Fortunately, our loving Creator has promised that soon such events as death will no longer haunt mankind and separate us from those we love. Jehovah God has promised to destroy death (Isaiah 25:8) and to restore our loved ones to us who have died by means of a resurrection (John 5;28,29). May these Bible truths bring comfort and reassurance to your hearts that you can see your loved one, Louis, again. It is Jehovah God's desire that you do (Job 14:14,15) and he has promised that you will (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To the family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Did you know the bible gives the hope of death not occurring on this earth anymore? At Revelation 21:4 it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” If you would like to know more about this hope, talk to any Jehovah’s Witness that you reach. I will keep you in my prayers##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Willis family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
