“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Jones family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Mr. Lovelace was certainly privilege with the gift of longevity (Psalm 90:10). Even so, our hearts still breaks when death separates us from those we love, no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. That is how our Loving God feels too! That' why at Isaiah 25:8 he promises to wipe out the tears from our eyes as he swallows up the enemy, death, forever! At John 5:28,29 Jesus tells us that He will call and the dead will answer him as he proceeds to resurrect them from death itself. What a joy it will be when mankind will be able to live out his days, here on earth, the way Jehovah originally intended: “even life forever more.” (Psalm 133:3, Psalm 37:29) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Aunt Helen, you're not alone. Uncle Harvey has just gone on before you to prepare your final and eternal resting place. May you find peace, joy and comfort in knowing that he is still taking care of his beloved wife and friend of 35 and 1/2 years. I love you and will be here for as long as you need.##imported-begin##Joan Gist##imported-end##

“ Our Heavenly Father, Jehovah knows how deep our grief is. We long for the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice that has been silenced. He is merciful and kind. He will comfort our grieving hearts and wipe the tears from our eyes. He understands us, because he created us. (Revelation 7:16-17) He is the one who tells us: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) “For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’” Also, Ezekiel 37:3-6.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
