“ Mr. Lydell "Ankton" Jackson

“ The precious memories of Lydell "Ankton" Jackson will bring you comfort. However, even in the face of calamity you can have hope. God will comfort and bless you at this critical time. Do not let your hearts be troubled. (John 14:27). Complete reliance on "the God of all comfort" will help to endure his bereavement (2Cor. 1:3,4). Words seem insufficient at this dire time. Although nobody denies the certainty of death, we all need comfort in the reality of it. May you find real comfort and relief, and as a result, begin to recover gradually from the pain. Love from those around you will help you through the days ahead. I Sincerely Offer My Condolence.##imported-begin##Geneva Humphrey McClendon##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It is not easy to endure the death of a loved one and it can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives.

Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at present, still, Our Loving God has comforted us. He promised that soon he will 'wipe the tears from all faces and 'DEATH (no matter the cause) will be no more (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your precious one, "Ankton".(John 5:28,29) May these Scriptural truths help to lessen,just a bit, the pain in your hearts today and in the days ahead knowing our Father will do all that he has promised, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2; Psalm 83:18). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
