“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Boyd-Carroll##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Jenkins family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to my Aunt Dorothy and my cousins on behalf of all the family members of Jimmie Lee Jenkins, the last surviving child of Wiley and Etta Jenkins. My Dad really wants to be at the funeral but at 87 years of age it is too difficult to transport him. His spirit is strong, even though his body is not. May God keep you all and maay Uncle Mack rest in peace in the company of the Lord that I know he loved. Sandra Jenkins##imported-begin##Sandra Jenkins##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the death of your loved one, Mack. May your hearts find comfort in God's Word where he states: "He (God) will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God shall wipe away tears from off all faces. (Isaiah 25:8). May your loved one awaken to a world (John 5:28,29) where there will be peace (Psalm 37:11) no sickness (Isaiah 33:34) and no more troubles (Revelation 21:4)throughout eternity (Psalm 133:3) That is God's promised to all mankind soon to be fulfilled (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
