“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Willis family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To Mary and Family,

I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Malcolm. However I felt as if I knew him because Nellie always spoke of his talents. She had plans of them working together. God had other plans. I pray he's resting in peace.

To ease your pain, think of the blessing he was to you and others.

I also pray that the peace of God is with you always.

Peacem

“ Dear Family: When a loved one dies, no matter how old or how young they may be it affects every fiber of our emotions, our very being. That's because losing a loved one to death brings us face-to-face with the realization that they are gone...all too soon... and we are helpless to do anything about it! (Psalm 49:7; 89:48). But there is One who is not 'helpless' in the face of death...Jehovah God, the very Source of life!(Psalm 36:9) And, he promises us in his Word, the Bible, that soon he will lovingly wipe the tears from our eyes because death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) Instead, there will be tears of joy as his Son, Jesus, proceeds to awaken our loved ones from the sleep of death (John 5:28, 29; 11: 11-14) What a wonderful time that will be when we are reunited with them and can look forward to living out our days, here on earth, as Jehovah God originally intended, in peace (Psalm 37:11,29) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Isaiah 25:8) My deepest sympathy to you. .##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
