“ Mr. Gottrell Woods no words can express how one may feel, may god comfort you and your family at this difficult time for the lost of your wonderful son. When i first heard of your lost i just couldn't believe it. The memories took me back, way back to the malcolm x days how you taught karate in the community of inkster how your son was always by your side.and when you did have to make arrons you would bring him by my aunt Sayonya's house and ask me if i would keep an eye on him and i would he was a good kid you did a great job of raising him. As he got older and became an adult he brought business to the city of Inkster by opening up his clothing store on the corner of Inkster Rd and Michigan Ave.He did good for his self.He was SMART BRIGHT HARD WORKER just like his dad Mr Gottrell Woods i applaude you for doing such a great job of raising your son to be a man just like his father. Love you may god be with you. Cathy Dixon###imported-begin##Cathy Dixon###imported-end##
