“ I only spent a little over 3 weeks with Anthony at the West Bloomfield hospital last year. In that short of time I considered myself a friend of his. I am very sad to hear of his passing. My heartfelt condolences to his family and to his many dear friends.##imported-begin##Cris Robbins##imported-end##

“ *Anthony you touched my heart by your quiet, kind and loving spirit. You are gone but not forgotten. I am truly blessed to have known a person like you.
I hope you are riding in heaven's motorcycle club where your spirit soars like it did when you were on your Victory cycle.
Rest in peace dear Anthony.##imported-begin##Karen Reedy##imported-end##*

“ Judith

I was so heartbroken to hear of Anthony's passing and even now it still feels like a dream. I have so many memories of Anthony sitting in the front office at HFH with us ladies back in the day....I'm sure you heard many of the funny stories we all shared. His adorable laughter and his facial expressions listening to our many stories were priceless and we always knew he had our backs, no matter what. Anthony was a true gentleman with such a great heart and so very kind to everyone. Today's service was so touching and beautiful. I truly believe Anthony's spirit will continue to shine through you and I pray that you will find the inner peace and strength to continue your journey and always believe he is surrounded by peace and an abundance of Love.##imported-begin##Patricia Bonds##imported-end##

“ I am so saddened to hear of Anthony's passing. Anthony was one of the most genuine and sincere people I have ever known. He had such a gentle soul and rarely had anything negative to say. We spent many days laughing at Henry Ford Hospital and that giggle is something I am thankful I will always remember. He will be truly missed by everyone. My sincere condolences to Judith and the entire Howard family.##imported-begin##Michelle Wyatt##imported-end##

Our after work "Bar nights" were some of my fondest memories and Anthony was a big part of what made them special. He was a wonderful person and I'm glad I had the opportunity to get to know him. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and his many friends.*###imported-begin###Leonard Valente###imported-end##

“ Judith and the Howard Family: I'm stunned and hearbroken to hear of Anthony's passing. I'll forever remember his little chuckle when one of our conversations tickled his funny bone, and the way his face would light up when he spoke of all of you. Anthony was a wonderful person, someone you could always count on and he will be sorely missed by all who knew him. May God give all of you the strength to get through this horrible time.##imported-begin##Jan Hooker##imported-end##

“ I worked with Anthony over 25 years. I am blessed to call him my friend and will miss him. When we were coworkers at GE, Anthony saw always someone I could count on. Hard working, loyal and a gentle spirit. As someone I was a vendor to, Anthony was always respectful, helpful and a gentle spirit. The world will be a little less without Anthony in it. We will miss him.##imported-begin##Robert Ralko##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I realize that words, however kind, cannot mend your broken hearts. But, hopefully, God’s words from the Bible will help bring comfort and hope to you now in your time of sorrow. Our loving God Jehovah is aware of your loss and has already made arrangements to heal your broken hearts (Psalm 147:3) He promises us at Isaiah 25:8 that he will soon ‘swallow up death in victory’. At John 5:28,29 God’s Son, Jesus, promises that he will awaken our loved ones from the ‘sleep of death’ (John 11:11-14) Our God has also promised that we will be able to live out our days, here on earth (Psalm 115:16; 37:29), happy, in peace (Psalm 37:10,11) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:34) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4) Kind words...yes, but more importantly TRUE words spoken to us from our Loving Heavenly Father who deeply cares for us. (John 17:17; 1st Peter 5:7) We can rest assured that all that he has spoken will take place exactly as promised by him (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##Joyce Jones##imported-end##

“ I met Anthony about 12 years ago at henry ford west bloomfield. Anthony was the nicest man. So soft spoken. When he left our system I was very sad. He always knew how to fix our equipment. I knew that when I called him he would be right over and take care of the problem. There were times when I would call and then by the time he got there I figured out what I had done wrong. He would never get mad for bothering him. I always hoped he would be back. I thought of him often during this past year. We would always talk about our up and coming vacations. I will truly miss Anthony. He was a one of a kind gentleman. Bye Anthony. You will be missed.##imported-begin##Mari Lynn Ventimiglia##imported-end##
