“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Jackson family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I’m writing you because I’m truly sorry about your loss, loses someone that young is devastated but God hates to see people dying. He hates when young ones die. Just like we do but the bible promises you will get to see Marcus again. And when you do it will be in paradise conditions. Marcus will be woken up to a beautiful paradise home. If you have your bible please read john 28:29. May the God of tender mercy continue to be with you.##imported-begin##Kelynn Salley##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ To The Family and Friends of Marcus. You are not alone. Remember Only God can give us comfort regardless of how distressing our situation may be. His Word assures us "Jehovah is near to all those calling upon him ... and their cry for help he will hear." Ps. 145:18, 19. The psalmist sang: "When my disquieting thoughts became many in side of me, your own consolations began fondle my soul." May you always look to God's Word the Bible for help. You have my Deepest Sympathy.##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith ##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: When a loved one dies, no matter how old or how young they may be, it affects every fiber of our emotions, our very being. That's because losing a loved one to death brings us face-to-face with the realization that they are gone...all too soon... and we are helpless to do anything about it! (Psalm 49:7).But there is One who is not 'helpless' in the face of death...Jehovah God. And, he promises us in his Word, the Bible, that soon he will lovingly wipe the tears from our faces because death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) Instead, there will be tears of joy as he proceeds to awaken our loved ones from the 'sleep' of death (John 5:28,29; 11: 11-14) What a wonderful time that will be when we are reunited with our loved ones and can look forward to living out our days, here on earth, as God originally intended, in peace (Psalm 3711,:29) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:24) and yes, free of death! (Isaiah 25:8) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
