“ Ladies,

*You know my prayers are with you. I'm sorry I could not have been there for support but, I hope you know that you were in my thoughts.
Love you both*

“ To Marion, Joy and Mommie:

If I begin to view something in my life as a problem or a burden, it is time for me to let go and let God. In prayer, I surrender control over the situation. Then I get out of the way and let God do God's part.

I surrender any nagging thoughts and worries that are on my mind, and I trust God. I have no need to control everything, plan every detail, or worry about every possibility. My commitment is to trust God. So I become still and quietly but trustingly proclaim, "I let go and let God."

Trusting in God relieves me. I feel as if a weight has been lifted from my shoulders. I let go of my own need to force a particular outcome; rather, I trust that God will bring about the right outcome. I let go and know that God, as always, is in charge.

"Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain you." —Psalm 55:22###imported-begin##Sis Gwen###imported-end##
