“ Markendo, I'm glad that I had the chance to talk with you before you were called home. As I told you then, you were not my step-son, you were my son and that I loved you very much. I was so proud when you said you knew that, that you loved me and considered me you dad. I never tried to take the place of your father, I only tried to be the best dad that I could. You made me feel that I was important in your life and for that I thank you. You need not worry, I will love and look after Maurice and the grand kids. As you used to say, "For Sure".

I miss you and love you. Your Dad##imported-begin##James E Bledsoe##imported-end##

“ It's still so hard to realize that you are no longer physically here with us. I keep hoping I can just wake up and this will all be a bad dream. But Gods knows best and I know He will not put more on us than we can handle. I think back, a couple weeks ago, when I hugged you, Only If knew it would be the last time, I would have held on a little longer. Kendo you will be missed but never forgotten. I could I ever forget your smile, that you always had on your face. I will not say bye, just see you later. I love you, Doogie.###imported-begin##Lashaun "Doogie" Pritchett###imported-end##

“ To the Family: A Faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death at any age is an enemy of mankind, (but especially when one is so young) because it separates us from those we love so dearly.(1Corinthians 15:26) However, our Loving Creator has promised that he will destroy death forever (Revelation 20:14) and that the time is coming, very soon, when 'all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out...' Our God has also promised that 'he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore.' (Revelation 21:3,4) May the God of All Comfort give you strength beyond what is normal to cope with the death of your loved one. And, in the days and weeks ahead, as you recall your many cherished memories of "Kendo", may God's Word, the Bible, remind you of his promises, for they are sure to come true, and know, too, that he also cares for you (Titus 1:2, 1Peter 5:7) My sincere and deepest heartfelt sympathy to the White family.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###

“ Kendo, I just want to let you know that I love you more than words can ever express. Not only were you my brother-in-law you were also my friend. Really you were my big brother also =) I am going to really miss you. But I know that you will always be with me, watching over me and protecting me, kind of like my guardian angel! Now I have you and my granddad watching over me.

At first when I heard the news I was doubting God. But I had to pray for understanding and he is giving it to me day by day. I now understand that you are protected by Gods hands in a very special way, and he needed you more than we do down here in the cruel world. In heaven you will not have anymore cloudy days or sadness. The storm is now over for you. Now it's your turn to help God protect all of us.

I also want to let you know that Maurice and I have decided that we now have 2 more kids! Myrakal and Kendo jr will always be taken care of. Maurice will step up and give them the guidance they need from a father. We pledge to give Tiffany and Sherice all the help they need in raising these kids. We know this is what you would want, and we know you would do it for us.

*Well I better go now! Just remember you will always hold a special place in my heart that will never be replaced. Love you big brother.

“ * My First, My Love, My Dearest Son ****

My heart yearns to hear your voice, receive your call, see your big smile and to hold you in my arms. Had I known that Easter Sunday would be my last and final hug, I would have held and hugged you longer and tighter. You left me way too soon. You had so much to do and so much to offer the world. The world has truly lost a great person. God knows the love, joy, happiness and the way you unselfishly gave of yourself to any and everyone will live on in our hearts forever.

* My First, My Love, My Dearest Son ****

May God Watch Over You - Rest In Peace

“ Markendo, you grew up with me as a baby and when you got older you still came around grandma. You always thanked me for all the things that I had done for you and then you would say "Grandma call me if you need to go someplace". Above all you never forgot to say "I love you" when you would leave. I love you and that word will always remain in my heart because I loved you when you were here and now that you're gone I continue to love you forever. Rest in peace my angel.
