“ Hello Mae By chance I found your videos a month ago: you are a real inspiration! Thanks to you i left behind my cowardy and I decided to become natural it have been a month ago without ironing or blow-drying my hair, and I'm looking for new ways of styling it whit no heat or chemicals products. I'm not brave enough to take the decision to do the BC, but still want to take care of my hair, keep it healthy, strong and wear my curls proudly no matter what people say.It's a bit difficult here where I live because not many women take this decision and have straight hair seems to be the socially correct way also there is no conventions or group of women who gather proud of their natural hair there.I regret to say I do not know my real hair, after many years of relaxing and i don't know how to style it yet, but I will learn I already took the first step in the decision of being natural, bought a lot of organic hair products free of additives such as isopropyl alcohol or benzenes (they are amazing!) and also started to search for information about how to take care of my hair during the transition.I still feel a bit insecure but with patience it will give good results.Wish me luck on my hair journey!Lids, from Paname1##imported-begin##Bikash##imported-end##

“ Cheronda, even though I have never met your brother, from the loving expressions sound like he was a wonderful brother and friend. Having lost my only brother I can truly say I know the pain and hole that death leaves in our hearts. A pain that God promises to remove at Revelation 21:3,4. I keep this promise along with His promise that I WILL see him again at John 5:28,29 close to me. It gets me through those dark times along with the many fond memories I have. May the comfort that only God can give and the fond memories of your brother sustain you at this time.##imported-begin##Letitia Couch##imported-end##

“ Meech I still can not believe that you are gone! We spoke a few days before you passed and you said you were going to come to Columbus on New Years Eve to see me before I left town. I still have the voicemail of you singing a few weeks ago and the joke! haha I am going to miss your Friday texts saying "Whats up cuz, what's going on this weekend." You sent that text EVERY Friday! You are one of the most kind hearted people that I know and that is something that I will never forget. I can not make it to your home going service, but I LOVE YOU and Miss you more that you know. “ To brother in Christ we shared lots of years and had a whole lot of fun but for now God has called you home so goodbye for now Meech I know you will be singing laughing and joking with our heavenly father.

To the Green family here are a couple of scriptures I would like to share.

Thessalonians 4:13-18

And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died. We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died. For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves. Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. So encourage each other with these words.

Romans 6:4

For we died and were buried with Christ by baptism. And just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, now we also may live new lives.##imported-begin##Curtis Wade##imported-end##

“ Jesse, Cheronda, Ken and Kennon,

John 14:1-4 "Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going." Family trust that our God knows are grieving hearts. Jesus will see us through this very difficult time. Meech, I truly believe in my heart you are now singing with Jesus and praising God for all his many blessings. You will live forever in our hearts and we will treasure your beautiful smile and loving spirit. Rest assured that Jesse, Cheronda, Ken and Kennon have our unwavering love and support and we will continue to pray and be there for them whenever they need us. Enjoy the Lord!

Remember the word of God, We all come forth as god (Job 23:10) if we understand that god is sovereign and knows what is best, even when we cannot understand what is happening at the time. “ To My Brother, My Friend, My Big Twin: Marlon - the word "BEST" Friend & Brother simply does not capture the bond we shared. Yes, initially sadness filled my heart, but now, joy has overshadowed every part. We've had many conversations about such a time as this, and I'm happy to report your life has brought to so many, nothing but endless bliss. Since the second grade, we talked of personal & family accomplishments we would achieve. Thanks to God's grace, you did just that with ease! Now I know you are in that heavenly place, giving Chuck and Lenny a smiling face. Don't you worry about your "Jessie Baby", and Cheri, Kennon and Ken, for they are just find knowing you are now in heaven with your family and friends. I can see and hear it now - Chuck is at the Gate saying "son come on in, but don't close the gate, because your mother & sister are yet on the way". Lenny is saying "boy I prayed you in", and I know you responded humorously with.. "so how did you get in? Chuck had to have paid your way in! Now where is Whitney? I need her to hit a note!"...Until I see you again, prepare my wings so we can fly together again. I Love You. (Little Twin)###imported-begin###James Goodson###imported-end###

“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: The Bible teaches us at Ecclesiastes 9:11 that 'time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all.' Unfortunately, sometimes that 'unforeseen occurrence' is not a happy occurrence, but brings sadness. It can even break our hearts, as in the case of the death of a loved one. However, thanks to God through his Son, Jesus Christ, preparations have already been set in place to reverse the ravages of death. "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice (Christ Jesus) and come out." (John 5:28,29) Yes, you can see your dear loved one again! May your hearts find comfort, hope and reassurance in the days ahead knowing that all our loving God Jehovah has promised will, indeed, come to pass (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
