“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort in these scriptures and faith in them for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Boyd-Carroll##imported-end##

“ Doris, I was so sorry to hear of your loss. I am sad I didn't hear about it in time to comfort you earlier. There is no greater loss than the loss of a child. May the Lord lead and guide you in your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Joyce Herron-Taylor##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Spigner family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
