“ Cousins,

My heart is heavy because I cannot make it to Matthew's funeral after all. Know that I will be praying with you, even though I am here in Dayton.. My prayer is that God will be glorified and that He will comfort you.

I smile when I think about all the family fun and fellowship we have had with Matthew over the years. His grin, his laugh and his way of letting you know how he felt about things made him truly special to me. I loved seeing Matthew and Mark walk in together with the big hats on. Matthew would light up whenever he saw me and give me a hug. I'm going to miss him. I thank God for giving me precious things to think about at this time.

Love,

“ To the Cleary Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr. Matthew. It is always devastating when we lose a loved one to death. This is because death is an enemy of mankind because it separates us from those we love so much. However, rest assured that Jehovah God will destroy death (1Corinthians 15:26) and he is mindful of your loss and cares very much for you (1Peter 5:7). He has already made arrangements for you (and all of us) to see our dead loved ones again, for He has promised a resurrection for those sleeping in death in memorial tombs (graves). (John 5:28,29) May these Scriptural hopes bring you much comfort in the days ahead and help to make your present pain a little easier to bear. Rest assured, God will do all that He has promised (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###
