“ My condolences to your entire family during this sad time. May God bless your family and renew your strength and increase your faith in God and know that Maurice is in a better place free from the troubles of this world. I'm still in shock even after attending the funeral...can't believe such a smart, funny, and caring person who I called my baby bro and best friend is gone. As I look @ the picture I took of you not too long ago it's so hard to grasp the fact that your gone and now all I have left of you is the memories of all the good times we shared together and I can still hear your voice replaying over and over again in my head of you calling me your best friend:(I swear I'd give anything to go back and time just to hear your voice and be blessed w/your presence one last time and let you know that I truly do love you. I miss you and love ya baby bro and you will never be 4gotten###imported-begin##Topaz Morrison###imported-end##

“ My heartfelt prayers are with the Nimmons family during this time. I salute those who were responsible for raising Mo! Mo was a kind person who gave from his heart. I will never forget his support of Carolyn. I could go on and on but what I most remember is how he showered her with gifts of love on Christmas. He gave her things from the heart he gave her things that showed how much he cared. He respected her as a young lady and I can tell that he was from good stock! Lastly, I will never forget how he took pictures with her for her prom even though he wasn't her date. The fact that he was there spoke volumes about his character.

Mo I am sure God has tailor made a robe suited especially for you... You were always dressed So Fresh, So Clean.. rest in peace and thanks again for setting the bar high!##imported-begin##LeAnda##imported-end##

“ My prayers and thoughts goes out to the family of Maurice, never in a million years did I ever think I would have to write anything like this especially not this soon. Even with me not being family, it feels like it with you gone. Hurting badly with knowing that I'm never going to see you again until it's my call. The thoughts of you just coming to chill on my porch with me and talk about the most outrageous things and helping me catch that crazy dog whenever she got loose was very well appreciated. You were always so cool and also generous and it is very sad to say that someone like you had to leave so early. Just want to let you know you will be truly missed and never forgotten. -Gi Gi.##imported-begin##Georgeanna M. Gary##imported-end##

“ Maurice we have had the greatest times and most terrible. but what ill always remember are the best moments that we shared. like when you first tried to talk to me outside of king. we fell in love so fast. i cant even believe that you have been taken away from me so soon. i loved you so much and even though we both made mistakes i just really regret the fact that i never got the chance to say all of the things that i wanted to say. i never got the chance to give you that last hug... or even that last kiss. you were once my hero. everything that i wanted and needed i found in you. you were such a giving and caring person. sometimes i thought that you cared too much. i remember all of the letters that were passed back and forth between the two of us. that was the only way we both really expressed our feelings for each other because we both were too stubborn. i hope you are watching over me. help me become the better person that you always wanted me to be. I'm going to miss you more than you may know. im hurting because of the way we ended and that i never really apologized for all the wrong and all the hurt that i caused you. but we as humans never think about that until someone leaves us. and for now on i vow that i will tell how i am feeling and never keep anything bottled in because had i done that before july 28 you would still be here with me loving me the way i knew you did. now i have to say my goodbyes through internet and at your funeral. R.I.P my love you will truly be missed. LOVE ALWAYS AND FOREVER CAROLYN!###imported-begin###Carolyn M. Sharp Nimmons###imported-end##

“ To The Family of Maurice Nimmons,

My prayers and thoughts are with you as you go through this period. I was once told that "God never puts on us no more than we can bear". And to loose a family member so abruptly, without warning, without notice, not at the best time of the day or night, just not when we are ready to let go makes us wonder if we can bear it. But, I've been told and I've learn that whatever the emotions are, they will pass and what we cherish is the memories of the good times, the days you smiled together, you cried together, you argued and then made up. Hold on to all the thought of the times you spent together.

In closing, I say Maurice was given to us by God, his father for a time that the Lord thought was most appropriate and now he has returned back to his maker. Maurice was here for a reason, for a season and for the lifetime that had been appointed, for us to learn something about ourselves that had not been discovered or developed. May his soul rest in peace until the day when we shall see him again.##imported-begin##Augustine Sharp##imported-end##

“ You came, you went, all so suddenly. It's hard to believe that you are gone, you were just at the recital and then over for the 4th of July. It makes me so mad to see a life with so much potential cut short. Chops and I were just at your graduation. MiMi prayed for you last night, and I just believe that God makes no mistake and your 18 years of life gave Him the glory! You will be missed.##imported-begin##Deleah Sharp##imported-end##
