“ Dear Family, While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the White family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel when we experience the loss of loved ones. During this difficult time may the comfort of God's Word sustain you and bring you solace in the coming days. “In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah,
And to my God I kept crying for help.
Out of his temple he proceeded to hear my voice,
And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears.”
Psalms 18:6. I am truly sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##V

“ My Sincerest Heartfelt Condolences I extend to Willane and Tedra at these moments of grieving. Melvin was a good and kind man, he enjoyed conversing and being social, he enjoyed young people and their outlooks on life. He was always an optimistic man and I recall hearing him whistling and singing in the summers. I recall his patients and kindness he always gave to others. And I recall how he allowed me to plant a young lilac sapling in your yard, which like all things and people in his life, he nurtured into a large blossoming bush over the years. He was one of my key life exemplars who made Mansfield St. a real home. He is already deeply missed on this earth plane, but I know in my heart that he is with us in spirit, memory, and will be upfront at our spiritual welcoming party when our calling home times come.##imported-begin##Lawrence

“ There are nine requisites for contented living: HEALTH enough to make work a pleasure; WEALTH enough to support your needs; STRENGTH enough to battle with difficulties and forsake them; GRACE enough to confess your sins and overcome them; PATIENCE enough to toil until some good is accomplished; CHARITY enough to see some good in your neighbor; LOVE enough to move you to be useful and helpful to others; FAITH enough to make real the things of God; HOPE enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future.” - My eternal thanks Mr White, for in a world of discontent you have always showed your then young neighbor, what real happiness is.###imported-begin##Mary Carleton-Smith###imported-end##
