“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Banks family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ *Dear Phenecia, Family & Friends,
My prayers are with you. Please accept my heartfelt condolence. My memories of Michael always brings to mind his warm smile and kind heart. He will always be remembered and I pray God comforts you and the family. May you find comfort in knowing that while he is absent from the body, he is present with the Lord. Lean on your friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about.##imported-begin##Lorna Wadlington##imported-end##*

“ Phenecia, My deepest condolences to you and your daughter and the entire Banks family. "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal". I only met your husband once and it was such a pleasure. His countenance was that of one of God's angels here on earth. God is faithful and said that He won't leave you comfortless, so know that even in your loneliest hour that He will wrap His loving arms around you to comfort you and keep you safe. Be blessed my sister and my friend! I'm praying for you.##imported-begin##Regina W##imported-end##

“ One of the fondest memories I have of Mike is when he and Phe picked me up from my home to go to the studio to record some choreography for Phe's class. On our return home, a storm started to brew. Then to our amazement we saw the perfect rainbow. The colors were so vivid. We shared a short conversation in the car about how the rainbow was a sign of a covenant promise from God to us...Mike, your transition so suddenly was like a dark cloud, but God's promise that you shall live forever and we shall see you again is our rainbow. The song says, "When we all get to heaven, what a day of rejoicing that will be, when we all see Jesus, we will sing and shout the victory!" Phe , Shar and family, you will see Mike again and although you miss him unbearably....this is not goodbye, it is just see you later. May the Lord take all the pieces of your broken hearts and put it back together again. You are loved, Mike is loved and God has a plan to bring you through this....Much Love, Wendy##imported-begin##Wendy Perkinson##imported-end##

“ Dear Banks family, please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one Michael. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Michael, May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Mike, I met you in 1995 when we both began working for what is now known as MSXInternational. We called one another "cuz" because we had the same last name. I recall attending yours and Pheneicia's wedding. WOW, we had a wonderful time. The ceremony was running late, but the choir sang until the power of the Lord came down. I also recall when the renovation of the church was completed and York and I attend a concert, OMGee it was totally off the chain. Even though I have not seen you in a while, we were facebook friends. I pray for Pheneicia, and your entire family as I know if we will miss you, how much more will they. Farewell old friend, see ya when I get home.##imported-begin##York & Andrea Banks##imported-end##
