“ To Peanut's family may God bless you with peace, grace and comfort as you keep your mind on Christ Jesus. I pray that you allow Jesus to comfort you and keep you during this time of lost. The first time I met "Peanut" through my sister his kindness toward my handicap son made me smile because of his compassion. Periodically he and my sister would call and I would talk knowing they thought of me as old or old fashion. Smile He will be missed. In time may you cherish the memories.##imported-begin##Jan##imported-end##

“ To Peanut and all my sons and daughters. God blessed me with one biological son and daughter. He also had another plan. He chose to let so many more cross my path in this life. I love you all, and Peanut could let ma fall from his lips and it tugged at my heart. I don't know if he knew my given name. It is a privilege and a blessing. And that smile. The last time we spoke he was checking on Bradford and I, on our way to Mississippi. The call dropped and a week later so did Peanut, into the arms of his Heavenly Father. No matter what God knew his heart, so did many of us. We let him think he was hard. For Peanut I need you all to remember this. The present is all we have moment to moment and day to day take it, cherish it and do something better than you did yesterday. We can't go back and the future is what we long for and can have with our Heavenly Father leading us with unconditional love. I beg you don't go any further without him. God is the one who leads me with a voice of wisdom and a heart of love for you all. I could not do this on my own. Do these 3 things. 1. Pray without ceasing, trusting him in all things. Even Peanut called on Allah, Buddah and Jesus Christ when he had no control. 2. Be thankful in all things, good and difficult times. 3. Be a joyful giver, whether it be time or money. Honor his memory by trusting in God who holds him now. God is the only one who can give us the peace we need to carry on. Miss you Peanut.
