“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Isaiah 25: 8 Please read it. . I hope it will bring some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences to you on the death of your loved one, Michael. It's difficult, most times, to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear loved one. Inside our hearts hurt too. What words can one say to comfort you and ease the pain in your hearts? I've found great comfort from reading Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, where he promises to resurrect those who have died. Also, Revelation 21:4 where our Loving Heavenly Father has promised that soon death will be no more. In fact, anything causing us mourning, outcry, tears or pain will be done away with. May your hearts find peace and comfort in the days ahead knowing that our Loving God (Psalm 83:18) will truly keep his word to us, and all that he has promised will come true. (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolence goes out to the Snyder family. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. "And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."-Rev. 21:4. ##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##
