“ To my brother Mike, one of the best brothers ever. I don't know if I ever said I love you, but there are no words to be said, I knew you knew. I loved you so much. You were my first playmate. I miss you so much and after 14 years I'm still grieving for you badly.

“ To the Black Family: My sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one, Michael. Death at any age is tragic because death is an enemy that robs us of our loved ones and leaves us with much sorrow. May you find much comfort in knowing that our Loving Creator has promised to destroy death forever... (1 Cor. 15:26) and to reverse all the effects that death brings with it, such as tears, pain and sorrow (Revelation 21:3,4). Know too, that God has promised a resurrection for our loved ones (Acts 24:15) This is something He is yearning to do because He cares deeply for each and every one of us (Job 14:14,15, 1 Peter 5:7). He will fulfill His Word (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you. ##imported-begin## joyce jones ##imported-end##

“ Michael Black was my only brother-in-law and was like the brother that I never had. We shared a lot of heart to heart talks over my years of knowing him. I had great admiration and respect for him. Michael was always the peacekeeper and never believed in living life with holding grudges. I will forever love and miss him. We recently had a conversation last month that I will forever hold near and dear to my heart. Thanks for being the great person that you were and always will be. I hold you close to my heart forever and always!Love, Kim##imported-begin##Kim Black##imported-end##
