“ To the Taylor Family: It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when It happens the thought of never again begin able to talk to laug with, or hold you loved one can be most difficult, to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised. "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear in (Jesus) voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Since Jesus made the promises, it is sade to assure that he is willing and able to do so. His Father, Almighty God has every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more." May you find comfort in these scripture and faith in them for he "cannot lie." (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Geneva McClendon##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I realize that words, however kind, cannot mend your broken hearts. But, hopefully, God's words from the Bible will help bring comfort and hope to you now in your time of sorrow. Our loving God Jehovah is aware of your loss and has already made arrangements to heal your broken hearts (Psalm 147:3) He promises us at Isaiah 25:8 that he will soon 'swallow up death in victory'. At John 5:28,29 God's Son, Jesus, promises that he will awaken our loved ones from the 'sleep of death' (John 11:11-14) Our Loving God has also promised that we will be able to live out our days, here on earth (Psalm 115:16; 37:29), happy, in peace (Psalm 37:10,11) free of sickness (Isaiah 33:34) and yes, free of death! (Revelation 21:4) Kind words...yes, but more importantly TRUE words spoken to us from our Loving Heavenly Father who deeply cares for us. (John 17:17; 1st Peter 5:7) We can rest assured that all he has spoken will take place exactly as promised by him. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
