“ I am sorry for your loss. Along with the sadness and pain, come many questions. Why do good people die? In the Bible at Job 14:14,15; Job asked this question, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? The answer is yes! It’s possible for our dead loved ones to live again right here on this earth! Learn how, visit Watchtower.org or ask any of Jehovah’s Witnesses. Sincerely###imported-begin##P. Knight###imported-end##

“ *Death of a loved one is always hard to bear, I just wanted you to know that others understand and share your pain, but especially does God know and feel your pain. We are encouraged to “throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us” (Psalm 55:22) Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without DEATH, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29) In time, may your hearts find comfort in what God has promised, for it will all shortly come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##T. “ *May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Brunson family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). “ Georgia,

I am deeply saddened by the loss of your husband, Micheal. As much as we wanted him to be here with us, God wanted him more. He is resting in the arms of Jesus and his body is fully healed. The words says to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I pray God send you comfort and healing to get you through these days.
