One year ago today you were laid to rest beside Mom and Dad. One year later, it still pains to know I will never pick up the phone again and hear you say “what’s up, what’s up, my Fay”. We were so numb a year ago, a year later knowing you are safe with God has softened that numbness. Still it is with a heavy heart and blurry eyes that I say to you on the anniversary your homegoing day, your light will never diminish nor will I ever stop missing and loving you, my Moe.

“ My Dearest Morris,

One year ago today was the most painful day of our lives, as it was tentatively confirmed that the remains found were yours. As I write this, unable to see because of the tears, the pain today feels as raw as yesterday. You are so missed my darling brother but I am consoled that you are safe at home with God, Maybell, SnoBo & Gene. As I remember that day one year ago and severe pain, sadness and loss overtake me, I can hear you say to me "now just stop it" as you often said to me when I would get overwrought. But know this, I will never stop missing and loving you and the pain will subside (or lessen) one day. Remembering those BIG HUGS I used to send you, I'm sending you a BIG one today in Heaven. Loving you always, your big sister###imported-begin###fay###imported-end###

You've been gone from us and home with God for over a year now...but, we didn't know it yet and was still so very hopeful on February 8, 2006. What a fun birthday party Tonya gave you the previous year and the wonderful gifts you received. I'm so thankful to have spent that birthday with you, unaware it was to be your last one. Morris, we miss your heart and your love, your kindness, thoughtfulness and that big beautiful smile. We miss you! While your absence hurts and makes us sad, we will never cease loving you, nor will we ever forget you...our hearts will hold you always. Happy birthday in Heaven my darling and beloved brother Morris!

“ *Mr dearest brother Morris,
A year ago we were desperately looking for you, but unknown to us you had already gone home to God. As we enter this new year, beautiful memories of past Christmases with you - as a child when you'd go to bed as soon as it got dark so Christmas would hurry and get here; how you'd shake your gift and put it to your ear before opening it; our last Christmas together when you gave a house tour, your schedule and how proud you were; the minature hurricane lamps from you; being in church with you on New Year's eve. So many beautiful memories and those memories are what sustains me know. I miss you so very much and will love you always. Your big sis - Fay###imported-begin##Fay###imported-end##*

“ Dear Morris:

I never got the opportunity to meet you, but I heard so much about you through your Big Sister Yvonne.

Sometimes she would be so mad at you for not keeping in touch as often as she thought you should. She really had a mothers concern for you, and I am sure she drove you crazy with all the worry.

I remember when you were missing for far too long, she kept saying "what if you were somewere alone and cold."

Morris, that was your way of letting your sister know.

We come in this life and so we all shall pass.

And know, Morris it is time for you to look out for your sister, and family, they need you.

God bless you.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to Morris Bates's family and friends. We would like to express our deepest sympathy for the pain/loss his family is going through and will continue to go through in the days to come. No sentence will be great enough to compensate for the senseless taking of a human life as we know from firsthand experience. Morris was a vibrant young man whose life was cut short by a senseless act. We pray the justice system will impose the maximum sentence possible so that his killer can spend the rest of his days thinking about the pain/loss he has bought upon Morris's family caused by his poor judgement.##imported-begin##Michelle and William Dillard##imported-end##

“ Faye, Darrell, Diane, Lemuel, Elmer, Tonya, Tarra, and Montrez:

Although I was unable to attend the funeral service, my prayers and thoughts were there for your entire family. Just remember that although this will be one of the hardest times of your life - and one of life's worst tests of your faith, justice will eventually be served. "Everyone" has to face the ultimate judge one day and answer for their sins. So, even if you don't see the justice served during your lifetime, just trust and believe that it will be done. Now is the time for you all to hold each other together and continue to love each other. Trust also that Morris will never be forgotten. A bright thought for your day is that he is safe in heaven with both his Mother and his Father and no one will ever harm him again.

“ To All of Morris' Family Members:

Words cannot express what you are missing by Morris' passing.*

Feelings cannot express what love you have for Morris.*

So, put your faith and healing in GOD's hands for HE is there every moment that you need HIM and HE NEVER leaves you alone at no time in your life, NEVER! --From me to you!*

I only had the pleasure to meet Morris one time at LaTonya's old home in Detroit and he seemed like a great guy, even with all of the things that were going on in his life at the time.

May Allah look over all of you during these days, months, and years to come. One day, we will all be together happy and never ill! Just praising Allah every day and every night for allowing us to enter Heaven!

To my Best Friend, LaTonya:

As long as I am here on earth, I will be there for you, my dearest friend. I LOVE YOU!##imported-begin##Alicia Markham-AIKasid##imported-end##

“ *Cousin Morris,
I will miss your "MAGNIFICENT SMILE". Everytime I saw you, regardless of the occasion, you "ALWAYS" had a smile on your face. I appreciate how patience you were with Eric while he was driving on his first road trip since getting his license when went to the family reunion in Arkansas the summer of 2005. “ My Dearest Brother,

Only God knows why you were taken from us so suddenly. It is still very hard to believe, and at times, I wish I could just wake up and hear you call me “Tonie Tone”, once again. I heard one time that “God has to pick the most beautiful flowers from his garden sometimes.” I don’t believe he picked just one flower, but I do believe he has taken away a bouquet of flowers since you touched so many lives in such positive ways. You were always loving, kind, sweet, generous and willing to help others. That is why this is very difficult to accept. However, it has been said that time will heal all wombs. I think time will help us all to deal with this better, but it will take a lifetime to heal the void we all feel in our hearts from missing you since November 17, 2005.

Love to you forever and until I see you again on the other side...

“ My dearest Morris,
This is the second most difficult day of my life your homegoing. The first was when we got the sad news of your sunset.....For reasons known only to God you were taken from us much too soon. You will always be missed, not a day goes by where you are not in our thoughts and prayers....I will always remember your beautiful smile and your kind heart..You always felt that you could take care of the family and in so many ways, you did.....Too quickly you were gone my dear sweet Morris...For months we felt only disbelief, now very slowly acceptance. Healing cannot be measured against any calendar, therefore I will try to take it one day at a time....If tears could build a stairway and memories a ladder. I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again. I love you and miss you so very much.

“ Dear Uncle Morris,
I am sorry for saying bad things to you. I know that are my uncle and I have to respect that. When I saw you I always ran outside to you and say "What's Up, Moe Dog". I love you so much. But I know you are with your Mom Mary Kate a.k.a. "May Cakes", your dad L.S. a.k.a "Snowball" and your baby brother Gene. I love you and I never wanted to harm you in anyway.

Love always,

“ Dear Uncle Morris,

I love you with all my heart and soul. You were like a big brother to me and you were my best friend. I could talk to you about any and everything. You never judged me and always told me the truth no matter how bad the issues were. When I had my share of problems you took me in with arms wide open.

I loved you when we would all travel out of town together. We have been here and there together. We had our share of arguments but we knew where our hearts were at the time. I know I have said some hurtful things to you back then my heart should have never felt. I hope that you forgive me for the things I have said. You always wanted me to make A' and B's, but I always bought you C's and D's, but you still loved me any ways.

Love you always,

“ *My dear beloved Morris,
You have no idea how you touched my heart...and a part of it has left with you. I wish I could have wrapped my arms around you and taken away every ounce of pain you ever suffered. You were so special to us Morris and so loved! Your smile, your compassion, your humor, the You Morris, the very special and wonderful You will be missed immeasurably, but I know you will always be with us...in our hearts, always loved and never forgotten because you touched all of us in that special way that only you could. Say hello to Maybelle, SnoBo and Gene. And Morris, sweet prince, rest in peace, you are home now. I love you, I love you, I love you...and will through eternity. My heart is hurting, oh how it hurts Morris and I can hear you say "now just stop it" but I know you are home and safe now. I thank you my darling and cherished brother for the opportunity to have loved you, but then you were and will be...a loved, loving and always, always, always, special part of me. Goodnight sweet prince.*
