“ *Relena and family,
When I think about your Dad, I remember a man that loved his family. To me, Mr. Boone was the epitome of a strong Black man protecting, providing and professing his love for his family. I wish we had more men like him. You were blessed to have such a wonderful man in your life. May God continue to bless you and your family.##imported-begin##Karol McCaskill Emmons., Marion, Indiana##imported-end##*

“ Even though you not by my side you are in a better place and you are reunited with your family. From the beginning you have given us courage, love, strategies, and gave us the answer to our future or rather destiny. The things that you said, the stuff you gave me, and the words of your wisdom will help me continue sustain the member of the boone legacy. Have a fun and eternal happiness in the afterlife and god bless you.

*Love you very much

“Moses was more like an older brother than an uncle to my father (Ernie Sr.) They grew up in the same house and he helped to raise him. So in turn, he helped to raise me. Everytime I got beat up by my older brother, my dad comforted me with stories of the two of them growing up. Uncle Moses would consistently show my dad who was boss back in the day.

I always thought of my dad as a giant when I was younger. Uncle Moses showed me a different side of my father. To Moses, my dad was just "peanut." Uncle Moses was always proud of his little brother. And learning how my father had to work so hard to step out of Moses's shadow helped me to step out from my brother's.

My fondest memories of Uncle Moses were of sitting around the keyboard singing motown songs and playing with my cousins. I took piano lessons but could never play like my Uncle Moses. To hear him play brought joy to my heart and there are still songs that I hear today that bring me right back to his side, singing with his grandchildren.

Moses cast a big shadow, his legacy will live on through the stories that we tell and the musical gifts that keep springing up generation after generation in the Boone family.

We miss you Uncle Moses.##imported-begin##Chad Boone##imported-end##

“ I just would like to say
Uncle Moses will be missed greatly.
He had a heart of gold. I will remember him always. To me he was always fun and loving.
A word for the family weeping may endure for a day but the joy of the Lord will come in the morning.

He has gone on to be the Lord and is no longer in pain. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord
God be with you until we meet again.

“ I was Moses' summer job until he married and left home. As a result I got to tag along and we did everything together. We shined shoes at Briggs Stadium, ran family errands, rode our bikes to Belle Isle, across the bridge to Canada, and to Rouge Park. While in college a spent summers with him in the projects learning to stretch a dollar and to raise a family.

He was one of the most intelligent and talented people I've known, always a source of sage advice and moral support when I needed it. He was my big brother and mentor. Anything I have accomplished in life as professional, a parent or a contributor to my community, I owe to Moses.

In addition, e was a truly gifted musician. Any instrument he could pick out the scale, he could teach himself to play. He inspired many others to hone their talents and be all that they could be.

I will miss him, but I will never be without the love and lessons we shared.##imported-begin##Ernie Boone Sr.##imported-end##

“ Im sorry to hear about Mr.Boone's passing but,one thing I know for sure is that the realm that he's in now is a better one than this one.Life as we know it is not over that's one of the reasons why Jesus went to the spirit world to set up his gospel and his church at time he died on the cross.I know that Jesus Christ lives and that Heavenly father lives and that Jesus is our savior,as we strive to live our lives in these latter days we must remember to always pray,read our scriptures,and follow the commandments of God,so that we can get the protection & blessings from our father in heaven.

In Jesus holy name,Amen

“ Since the First day I met "pops" it was like I knew him all my life. he was very welcoming and loving toward me. I enjoyed listening to him tell me stories about the days of old. Not just about his life, but the lives of his children who played such a big part in my personal and musical life. he will be missed, but we dont lose something when we know where it is. Rest in the arms of your maker now pops We will miss you!##imported-begin##Dwayne Davis##imported-end##
