“ I am sorry to hear of the loss of Myron. I pray that his family and friends will find comfort from the words in the bible, which everlasting life if promised. Jehovah always tells the truth, he does not lie. Myron can rest now from his pain and suffering. We must continue to struggle to survive this wicked world, with the crime, violence, war, sickness and death. God did not intend for us to live this way. The bible gives us much hope and comfort ". 2 Corinthian 1:3-4. Jehovah is the, "God of all comfort" and HE helps us understand how He and Jesus Christ feel about death. Death is an enemy that pursues us all. None of us can out run it. Jehovah is far more powerful than death. Jehovah is our rescuer who has already shown (by Jesus resurrection) that he can defeat this enemy. 1 Corinthians 15.26 (As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing). Isaiah 26:19 "your dead ones will live ...they will rise up". We WILL be reunited with our loved ones by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in peace and happiness in the very near future. John 5:28-29, Jesus said "all those in the memorial tombs will come out" and there will be "a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous".

“ Brittany and the remainder of the family and friends of Myron Moore are in my prayers. Take solace in the fact that he'd accepted Jesus and is therefore in the presence of the Lord.
I've only known Myron a short period of time as his downstairs neighbor but I loved him dearly. His quiet spirit and helpfulness will be missed.
May God richly bless each of you.##imported-begin##Elder Donna F. Woods##imported-end##
