“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words for Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ *My deepest sympathy to the Elms Family. The book of Hebrews describes Jesus Christ as "the radiance of God's glory", and a 'great high counselor' of all counselors. Although the author is unknown, may you find strength in its words: (Hebrews (NIV) 4:14-16) Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has gone through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin. Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.##imported-begin##David Craig (S. “ To the Family-• Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory of (T-Bone) help comfort you tomorrow. Life is eternal, and love is immortal, and death is only a horizon; What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful and funny to forget.##imported-begin##Valerie Bell##imported-end##

“ It will be the little things you remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. He will be greatly missed, may he have peace and love with Christ.
