“ Family of Dipo, OH HOW HE LOVED YOU SO VERY MUCH~! My heart goes out to you all that was so touched by this gentle giant in the Body of Christ. He went thru hell with cancer with such dignity and grace, to reach Our Savior's arms in Heaven. I have this comfort that he is in our FUTURE. He just got promoted to Heaven. This is the comfort I MUST take now thru this temporary time here on earth. I offer this Psalm, Psalm 66:12, 20. Secretary at the Kalamazoo District Office of DNRE-RRD and his sister in Christ.##imported-begin##Carol J. (C.J.) Mattson##imported-end##

“ This is so hard. Dipo's death is not only a personal loss to his family, to those of us who know him and love him, it is a big loss to planet earth and to our environment. It's so hard to say goodbye to a very nice man, a gentle man, a brother, a friend. It was nice knowing you Dipo. You have such a warm and loving spirit, very unassuming and easy going. A rare find. I miss your voice, your gentle smile, your wise counsel, your brotherly love and advise. You know it's funny the way we met, but I am thankful for the special purpose and meaning that God gave our encounter, His own definition, in His own rather special and infinite way. You became a true friend, a big brother, someone whose counsel I could trust and count on. Not sure who to turn to now Dipo, especially for the ways you guided me and helped me through personal hurt and pain. I have a lot to thank you for, for respecting me most especially. I can't believe I will not be able to pick up my phone to call you anymore. So, you are really gone! What a loss! I wish you peace at last!!! I wish you sweet sleep and perfect rest at the bosom of our Lord.

I pray that God will watch over your daughters, we know how much you love them. Sleep on Dipo, my brother, my friend. Eternal rest grant him oh Lord and let light perpetual shine upon him.

Dipo thank you so much. O daaro o. Simi laya Jesu. Sun re o. Sun re o. Sun re o.##imported-begin##Ayo' Fadeyi##imported-end##
