“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Brown family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ May you receive the strength you need to endure the days ahead. Reflect on the joyful times you shared with Mr. Brown. No one can take those memories from you. I pray for the strength & peace, only Grand Creator, Jehovah God can provide. He will guide you through this difficult time. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Losing a loved one to death is a horrible thing to experience. To the Brown family, I would like to take this time to express my sincerest condolences about your loss. I did not personally know Mr. Brown but I would like to share a scripture with you that I hope will bring you comfort. At John 5:28, 29 it states: "Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Take this time to read your copy of the Bible and meditate on the passages that you read. I know that you will find the comfort you need in the pages of the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ Dear Brown Family, Please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Oliver Eugene. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including, Mr. Oliver Eugene. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear Family,

My prayers goes out to your family. When such things happen, some wonder whether God really exists and, if he does, whether he cares about us.

The bible tells us, that God does care for us. Even though, we die, most of the dead will be resurrected on earth.-Acts 24:15-God's kingdom will end all suffering.-Rev 21:3,4##imported-begin##Shawn Benford##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Death of a loved one is always hard to bear. I just wanted you to know that others understand and share your pain, but especially does God know and feel your pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22) Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28, 29). In time, may your hearts find comfort in what God has promised, for it will all shortly come true (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
