“ To Ruth and kids; It was an honor to be able to share in the Celebration of Life for your husband, father and my friend! I have had alot of time over the last week to reflect on the many wonderful memories that you and OB have shared with me and my family. Such memories will sustain all of us over the coming days and years. We look forward to future wonderful times with you! R.I.P. my friend!###imported-begin##Tom Davis###imported-end##

“ I sincerely offer my condolence. Words seem insufficients at tis dire time. Although nobody denies the certainly of death, we all need comfort in the reality of it. May you find real comfort and relief, and as a result, begin to recover gradually from the pain. Love from those around you will help you through the days ahead. The precious memories of Orbia Taylor will bring you comfort. However, even in the face of calamity you can have hope. God will comfort and bless you at this critical time. Do not let your hearts be troubled. (John 14:27) Complete reliance on "the God of all comfort" will help to endure his bereavement (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).###imported-begin##Geneva McClendon###imported-end##

“ OB was an outstanding colleague for many years and a true friend. OB had a very successful career and I was fortunate enough to be a part of that. Although I have not seen OB very much since he retired, when I did, it always meant a lot to me. OB will always be a very special person in my life. I have great memories of him. What a fantastic partner, father, husband, grandfather, person and friend. God Bless OB and his family.##imported-begin##Jim Koperski##imported-end##

“ To Nathan and family,

I will continue to pray for you all...I understand what it feels like to lose your earthly father and mentor that God lavished you with the best of the rest. The home going service was very touching and showered with love and many great memories!

“ I worked with OB for 20 years and I am a better person... for having known and learned from him. The memorial service this morning was very moving, very dignified, and all true. OB was a wonderful person, a genuine loving and caring man. I did not know that he came from such humble beginnings (as I also did... dirt poor). Maybe that is why we thought so highly of each other... and respected each other... because we we were both cut from the same mold... without even knowing it! I share your sadness in this period of grief. He was a good man... the best.##imported-begin##Bill Vejcik##imported-end##

“ O.B.-

You will be missed. You left a positive impact on me not only as a special agent; but more importantly as a husband and father. I thank you for that.

May God bless you and your family always.##imported-begin##Christopher R. Pikelis##imported-end##

“ I started with IRS-CI Detroit in 1974. In all my dealings with OB as his support staff member and subsequently a special agent in his group, he was always the epitome of "cool". OB was a loving family man and great agent.

Family, I pray that the Blessing of God's unfailing grace comfort you and bring your hearts the peace, comfort, and hope that it needs to heal.##imported-begin##Nettadine King##imported-end##

“ We are never prepared for the loss of a loved one, but God is always prepared to help us through that loss.
May His presence begin the healing in your heart and soul,and may His love surround you with the comfort only He can give.
I will not leave you comfortless:

“ My Dear brother, Rest in Paradise for now, because you deserve that and more. Then Rejoice as you are joined with our parents and brothers. Your earthly presence is truly missed, but you have left an beautiful legacy here. Thanks for your love, guidance and concern. So many wonderful, loving childhood memories fill my heart and mind, of which I will cherish. Asking GOD to embrace Ruth and the family with his love and strength.###imported-begin###Kathleen Barrett###imported-end##

“ Absent from the body, Present with the Lord. Thanking God for your life and the lives that you touched. You will be missed but we find peace in knowing we will see you again. To my Aunt Ruth and my cousins- Find comfort in God's Word and look to Him when you feel overwhelmed. Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning!###imported-begin###Katrina May###imported-end##

“ Mr. Taylor you were a person that was genuinely and authentically concern for others. I will always remember how you greeted me, “Hi how are you doing, how has life been treating you.”

I'm thankful for the opportunity that Alonzo shared his father with me... You demonstrated a good husband, father and grandfather. And to the rest of the family my prayers are with you. (Proverbs 3, 5-9)###imported-begin###Cheryl Banks###imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Taylor family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead###imported-begin###Ariel###imported-end##

“ Dad, you are deeply missed. The values you have taught me will last a lifetime. I know that I have large shoes to fill. I am thankful that I have the opportunity to share them with my son. I promise I will take care of mom and will always be there. I am glad that I have always made time for you and I know that you are always in my heart. I love you and will always be in your debt.
From your baby son Nate.###imported-begin##Nathan Taylor
