Tribute Wall

“ I remember Otis and Velma. When I was little, we lived on a property he owned. Otis was always working on cars, and Velma used to come and mow our lawn. I used to ride on the mower with her. Otis was the only black person in risings then.

“ I send my sincere condolences to you at this sad time. May you find comfort in the words of our Heavenly Father when He says: "Just like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." (Isaiah 66:13) You have the wonderful hope of seeing Otis again when God's Kingdom is fully established##imported-begin##Jeanne G##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

“ To the Bell Family: I wish to offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one. Death is truly an enemy of mankind because it robs us of those who are dear to us! Mankind is helpless in the face of death. But our loving God has promised, that by means of a resurrection, he will restore life to our loved ones who have died (Acts 24:15, John 5: 28,29). He also promises us at Revelation 21: 4 that soon "he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and DEATH will be no more". May you find comfort in the hope held out to us in the Scriptures. We can put faith in what God says because we know he cannot lie. All that he says will come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
