“ *Dear Caffee Family ,
I have known this family for 25 years and Pete was(no he is)like my big brother.This is very heavy on my heart. God had a plan for Jr. they say he is in a better place this maybe true however I would rather have him here with us. May he rest in peace. I know he is watching over all of us. May God bless this family today and all the days to come .*

“ Dear Joe,
Your work family is very sorry for your loss. Most of us did not know your brother, but if he was anything like you at all, we're sure he cared deeply about those he loved. And, more than likely brought a smile to everyone. May you take comfort in the thought that many are thinking of you.##imported-begin##Emergency Road Response##imported-end##

“ To the Caffee Family: While no words can express my sorrow about your loss, I will stay these words to you. I first met Parnell when he was about 14 when I lived on St. Marys. He and my brother, Nathan (Norton), were good buddies. He was very polite and well-mannered and flashed a beautiful, warm smile. As he grew older, I noticed that Parnell was really a gentle giant at heart. He was always willing to help anyone - he gave, which is one of the requirements that God hands down to us through his word - the greatest of these is charity. Parnell protected those he loved; and he was a caring soul to so many people. The last time I saw him, he flashed that smile, polite and well-mannnered in his greeting. In your silent moments, let the memory of his radiant smile brighten your day and comfort you; let the memory of his giving spirit give your heart warmth; and let the memory of his loving character remind you of the love that he shared with you all. God bless you all at this time and I am praying for you.##imported-begin##Frances Berry##imported-end##
