“ Mr. Paul Millsaps

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ Rely on “the God of all comfort.” The Bible says: “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you.” (Psalm 55:22) Prayer to God is not some sort of emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation.”—2 Corinthians 1:3, 4.

God’s Word, the Bible, provides the greatest comfort of all. The Christian apostle Paul stated: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.” (Acts 24:15) Thinking about the Bible-based hope of a resurrection can be the greatest comfort while grieving the loss of a loved one.^ That is what Lauren, a woman whose teenage brother died in an accident, found to be true. “No matter how bad I felt,” she says, “I would pick up the Bible and read, even if it was just one verse. I picked verses that were particularly encouraging, and I read them over and over again. I took comfort, for example, from Jesus’ words to Martha after Lazarus’ death. He said to her: ‘Your brother will rise.’”—John 11:23.##imported-begin##Joslyn ##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ I am very sorry to hear of Paul's death. He and my mother, his Aunt Cleo, were like brothers and sisters, and I remember many joyous memories of his visits during my childhood. May God's blessing keep you and everyone during this time. You are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Beverly Murdock##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: May the memories and love you shared with Paul help soothe the grief you are experiencing today. May God's promise of a resurrection and life without end bring you much comfort in the days and weeks ahead knowing that our Loving Creator always does what he says for he cannot lie!
