“ Mr. Phillip Dorell Ford

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ *Dear Ford family,
Please accept this post as an expression of my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Phillip. I am writing to you to share with you the marvelous hope of a resurrection that the bible holds out to mankind. The wise man Job expressed it this way when he said at (Job 14:14)"If an able bodied man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that I have for my mother, and it is a hope that I have for Mr. Phillip. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##*

“ So many words I could say but none could describe the kindness he showed everyone. Kind, loving, thoughtful are just a few of the words. It was just so sudden I never expected a goodbye so soon we had just spoken not to long ago, but this friend will definitely not be forgotten. I have thought about whats happened since I heard the news but I am relieved because i know god welcomed him with open arms so therefore I am comforted. May god bless and watch over his family and his god children because he loved them dearly.##imported-begin##Miesha Thomas##imported-end##

“ To the Ford family: I was looking through the Obituaries and saw that you just Phillip. So I would like to offer my sympathy and condolence, by sharing this information with you that God's have promised in the Book of Acts 24:15: "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." The Bible not only explains the condition of the dead and offers hope for our deceased loved ones. It speaks of a mementous time when it will be possible to reprot: "Death is swallowed up forever."--- 1 Corinthians 15:54.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
