“ *JEN on Yes, yes you did succeed in coinnvcnig me to consume more cranberries. Unfortunately they aren't as readily available now that they're not in season... I did notice a lot of pomegranates popping up lately. Any... on Thanks for the props Beverly. Your cartoons are awesome! Seriously. Replace the processed carbs with stuff that comes directly from the ground, start to exercise even if it's begins as simply a 30 minutes walk... on Hey there. First off I want to thank you for taking the time to build this site. It helped me look over my goals/plans/self and build a kind of road map for improving my life!...Katy on Hey Sam! Just stumbled across your blog while doing some research on fasting. I have been a big fan of the concept, but never really put a structure to it. “ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death at any age is an enemy of mankind, but when one is so young, it's devastating! (1 Cor. 15:26). However, our Loving Creator has promised that he will destroy death forever (Isaiah 25:8) and the time is coming, very soon, when "all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and shall come forth..." (John 5:28, 29) May the God of all comfort give you strength beyond what is normal to cope with the death of your dear one, Quinton, as we all await the time when God will 'wipe away the tears from their eyes' because 'there shall be no more death...". (Revelation 21:4) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
