“ I'm writing you because I'm terribly sorry about your loss, I know you are really going through it so I just want to leave you with something very encouraging. The bible promises a time where you will be able to have a family reunion with Mr. Briner in a beautiful paradise home. If you have your bible please read Isaiah 25:8. May the God of mercy continue to be with you until this time##imported-begin##Kelynn salley##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family of MR. RALPH HAROLD BRINER: Please accept my condolences and sympathies for the loss of your loved one. Sweet memories and good times will keep Mr. Ralph Briner alive in your hearts. Please, know that God understands your pain and grief. In His Word, the Bible, He has promised to those who have lost loved ones, the prospect and hope of seeing their loved ones again, this time under peaceful conditions. (Isaiah 26:19; John 11:1-44; Acts 24:15). This promise has brought comfort and peace of mind to millions who are eagerly awaiting for those prophecies to come true. One such individual wrote a poem in the future tense before she died in 2008, she pictured herself having already experienced being resurrected. The poem is entitled: AMONG THE STARS
Peace at last! So now I, this night, lean back on this old Weeping Willow tree, unafraid and gaze up at the beauty of the stars. My loving Father put them there! They reflect a portion and whisper of His love, power and quiet tranquility. I smile, and the stars wink at me, as if they are saying, "You made it, and now all things are at peace. No more hurts, no more pain, no more tears of sorrow. Yes, my child, you made it. So relax, sit back, and enjoy us (the beautiful stars), and praise Jah as we do, because He has made all things new."
May these verses from God's Word comfort you as well as this heartwarming poem encourage too.##imported-begin##J.

“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....."###imported-begin###agnes yousif###imported-end##

“ It is very difficult dealing with the loss of loved ones. Please be assured that our Heavenly Father is near to those broken at heart and crushed in spirit. "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalms 34:18). We can go to him with all of our cares, concerns, and distresses because "he cares for you." (2 Peter 5:7). My deepest sympathies.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us our loved ones no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28,29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one, Ralph, and the precious memories he left you, that you will also find much comfort in Jehovah God's promises to us for the near future, for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
