“ *I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.
It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.*

*And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”.
Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)*

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

*May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ May the God of all comfort give you the strength you need to endure the days ahead. Death was not what our Grand Creator intended for us - just to live a few years and die. HE created perfect humans and put them in a beautiful paradise. God's purpose will come to fruition. He also will help us if we grab hold of his hand and allow him to get us up each day. Revelations 21:3-5 and Isaiah 41:10 & 13.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Ace family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ *To Family and Friends,
I am very sorry for your loss, I know you will miss him dearly, as well as cherish the many memories.
It is times like these that we need comfort and support, and I look to God's Word the Bible for both and I find scriptures such as 2Corinthians 1:3,4 which shows how the God of all comfort will give you the courage and strength to cope. Psalms 55:22 assures us of God's love by allowing us to throw all of our burdens on him, and both John 11:25 and Acts 24:15 speaks of the resurrection hope, something we hold out for our dear loved ones.
I hope these scriptures help you as they have for me. My thoughts and prayers will be with you in this most difficult time.###imported-begin##C. Griffith###imported-end##*

“ Dear Family: It is not easy to cope with the death of a loved one and can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at present, still, Our Loving God has promised that soon he will 'wipe the tears from all faces and 'death will be no more (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your dear one, Randall. (John 5:28,29). May this Scriptural thought help to lessen the pain in your hearts today and in the days ahead knowing our Father will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read about the loss of Randall and I wanted to extend my condolences to your family. We are encouraged by the fact that God knows and feels our pain. We are encouraged to "throw our burdens on him and he will sustain us" (Psalm 55:22). Although there are tears of grief today, God promises a joyful tomorrow without death, mourning, pain, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4). He also promises a resurrection to life for our loved ones who have died (John 5:28,29).##imported-begin##T. Cherry##imported-end##
