“ Ravon, since 5th Grade at Burt we were inseperable.. even when we went our seperate ways we always found our way back to one another, and if nothing else i knew you would always be my friend, I LOVE YOU STILL, I saw you a week before u passed, and im OVERJOYED that i got to see you one last time before u went home, i dont understand it, i never will. Im just happy i got to spend 10 yrs of my life with you in it! I will never let you go, or forget any of the memories we shared, God Bless your son that is on his way, I LOVE YOU BOY!!! r.i.p###imported-begin###Shardene' Martin###imported-end###

“ *I am so sorry for your loss. Ravon will be missed and thought about every day. May you hold on to the hope of seeing Ravon again in God's Kingdom when all of us will be "set free from corruption and enjoy the glorious freedom of the children of God" (Romans 8:21) There will be great rejoicing at that time when you can welcome Ravon with open arms, never to be separated again by cruel death, to spend eternity together with no fear, pain or death. Jehovah has promised all these things for you and me. (Psalms 37:10,11,29) Until then, may you feel the "peace of God that excels all thought" (Philipians 4:6,&)###imported-begin###J. “ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Jesus provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29, there is going to be a resurrection. Revelation 21:3-5, God promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Luke 23:43 He also said, "You will be with me in paradise". 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14. Hold on to the bibles promises. We will see Ravon again.###imported-begin##Liz###imported-end##

“ Lil cousin words cant express what the family is going through right now. I sat here going back and forth with myself on the strength that I wasnt as close to you as I should have been. I love you and I know your now watching and protecting the ones who love you esp. your soon to be born son. To young to leave but God said you have done your job on earth and that it is time to be back with him. Love you always.###imported-begin###DeLashia Lloyd###imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to the Badey family and friends. No matter when a loved one leaves it is always much too soon and we never get used to their death. This is because we were not created to die,but to live!(Ecclesiastes 3:11),but it is important to remember that when people die they leave us something very special behind,precious memories! May these precious memories of Ravon's smile,his laughter,his caring and the love he shared with each of you help you to endure your loss. At John 5:28,29 God tells us that our loved ones will not be forsaken by him. Just as you will cherish your memories of Ravon, Jehovah God will remember him too and will awaken him from death's sleep to live again(Isaiah 26:19;John 11:25). May you find comfort in God's promises that will soon come true(Titus 1:2). I did not personally know your Ravon,I read his obituary and hoped it would bring you a measure of comfort knowing that others care about your loss and are praying for your endurance as well.###imported-begin###Sylvia Colston###imported-end##

“ I sincerely offer my deepest condolences for Ravon. Sometimes we may feel paralyzed by a tragedy such as this. The sting of death not only pains but numbs survivors. What a blessing it will be when we can rightly ask: “Death, where is your victory? Death where is your sting?” (1Corinthians 15:55) May your family find the consolation in the “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next. (2Corinthians 4:7) Let the fond memories you shared of Ravon sustain you as you celebrate his life. He will be missed but always remembered. I personally did not know Ravon, I read his obituary. May you find comfort and rest, in God’s word the Bible.##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##

“ There are no words I can say, nothing a friend could do, that could make up for the passing of one so dear to you. But it may bring some comfort to know that sympathetic thoughts are with you in your grief. May the comfort of Jehovah and his son Jesus, bring peace to your hearts now and through the days ahead. May your tears of sadness turn to smiles as you remember the times shared with Ravon Anthony Badey. 2Corinthians 1:3,4; Revelation 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19 Proverbs 3:5-7.
