“ Not a day goes by where I don't think of you dad, it's times like this I wish you were here most. Me an Zell have kids now which is your first grand babies I know you would be so hype and they would of loved to meet you. Desira is on track to be a doctor here soon and ray is one of the biggest trainers in Florida living the dream. I always wondered what our conversations would of been like as I got older, sometimes I feel like I never got to know you on an adult level but I'm glad I had 12 years with you to know how much you loved all your kids and I promise to give the same to Bryson and Malachi. I miss you like crazy but god does everything for a reason. We will keep being great in your name just wanted to say I love you so much and i know your smiling down with that grin of yours I miss so much. I make Bryson give me 3 kisses on the forehead like you did with us and I TV makes my day 1000 times better. I'm glad I had you to teach me how to be a great dad and I promise I won't fall short. Love you old man keep watching over us!!!

Your big son
