“ Charlene,

I'm so sorry at your loss. Please know that my prayers are with you and Tameka. I met Ray at Michigan State in 1969. He became a Sigma and I was in his sister sorority Zeta Phi Beta We were friends but each went our seperate ways over the years.

We both wound up in the auto industry.

My sincere sympathy.

“ Dear Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr. Raymond. Although I didn't know Mr. Raymond personally, I still know and understand how it feels to lose a loved one to death...for death has touched all our lives at one time or another. However, may you find comfort, as I have, in knowing that our Loving Creator purposes to resurrect our loved ones who have died. (John 5:28,29), and he also promises to destroy death forever! (1 Corinthians 15:26). That time is yet in front of us, but it isn't far off. Jehovah yearns to end our distresses and reunite us with our loved ones (Job 14:14,15) May you find comfort in his promises soon to be fulfilled. Have faith in Him for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May you be comforted during this difficult time. Treasure the happy memories you've stored in your heart. Death is unnatural, because this was not in Our Grand Creator Jehovah God's purpose. Mr. Dawson can rest now. Revelations 21:3-5 encourages us: "God will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be no more". That includes each and every one of your tears. Even Jesus says at Luke 23:43, "You will be with me in paradise". That will be a reality.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Dawson family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
