“ TO the Frazier family, may you find comfort in God word the Bible during this difficult time. Isaiah 25:8 states God will swallow up death forever and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will not be.##imported-begin##Sierra##imported-end##

“ *To Mr. Frazier's loved ones - I send deepest sympathy at this sad time. Please find comfort in our heavenly father's own words when he says: "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.." (John 5:28) "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, outcry nor pain be any more.." (Revelation 21:3,4) I hope those words give you strength to face the future, knowing that it is our fathers will to reunite us one day with our dear loved ones.##imported-begin##J. “ We are going to truly miss the Razor (as I always called him) as a friend, brother and someone who enjoyed life. He was always cheerful during the good and the bad times. We had big fun together. He should have went to Kmart's and purchased a jump shot when we played basketball together to improve his game. Our prayers go out his wife (Angie) and children he leaves behind.

“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of Mr. Frazier. The Bible describes death as our enemy, our Loving God Jehovah promises to undo the tragic effects of death. John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.###imported-begin###Mrs. Malone###imported-end###
