“ Reggie I miss you so much. I hurt everyday that our friendship ended the way it did. You were the brother I always yearned to have. You were a friend and also a protector.. I realized it wasn't you it was the disease. Because in your heart you never intended on hurting anyone it was a battle you just couldn't handle on your own.. I love you and I always will. Your sister and Friend forever... Cinnamon, as you would call me..

“ To the family:

I give my deepest regrets for the loss of a great young man. I will continue to pray that God gives you peace that passeth all understanding in knowing that he is in better hands now.

Reggie will be missed near and far, but his spirit will be with us all forever. I had not talked to Reggie in years, but I'll never forget the friendship that we had while growing up. His laughter, his smile, his genuine kindness, the times we would hang out with all of the cousins (Man, Yo-Yo and the rest of them), and his God given gift-Music.

*I love you all!!!!
May God be with you all during this time of loss.*

“ Because He lives I can face tomorrow, because He lives all fear is gone, because I know He holds the future, life is worth the living just because He lives!

*We are truly saddened by the passing of Reggie; the death of a child leaves a void within. However, these are the times when the saints draw strength from the Lord and from the prayers of His people. Because we are wonderfully and fearfully made, there are many precious memories to reflex on. Just know that we are lifting the family up in prayer. Uncle General, Aunt Martha, Cousin Dollena, the grandchildren, and the entire family are in our prayers daily. The Lord will give you the strength to walk through this valley, and the glorious strength to climb to an even higher level in Him. Reggie will certainly be missed; however, always remember the Lord is forever faithful to them that diligently seek Him and trust in Him! Our prayers are with you. Even though we can't be there for the funeral, your family members in Jacksonville, Florida truly love you and share in your tremendous loss.##imported-begin##Pastor Larry T. “ General, Martha and Dollena:

It is with much regret that we are unable to be with you at the Homegoing of our nephew Reggie. But please be reminded that earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal, and tears are a language that God understands. Reggie will be greatly missed by all who knew him. God never makes a mistake. Our prayer is that God will sustain you in these your dark hours of distress. Eternal Love from Jacksonville, FL##imported-begin##Amos and Irene G. Tunsil##imported-end##

“ Reggie, you will truly be missed by many every where you went you left an impression that will never be forgotten. Just the way you played that guitar will live on in our memories forever. You use to say I was your favorite cousin. Now your favorite's heart is heavy because I won't be able to be there for your final fairwell, but I will be in spirit. Love your cousin Cathy Brown as you use to call me. Martha, I love you and I'm praying for the family.
