“ To the Raines family, please accept my sincere condolence. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe the tears from all faces..."-Isa. 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ To the family of Reginald D. Raines, I am so sorry for your loss. Would you like to see your dead loved one again? Thinking about reuniting with one who has passed may seem farfetched. However, the bible gives hope to those who have lost loved ones in death. At Revelation 21:4 it says "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I hope this could provide a small measure of comfort to you. If you have any more questions, feel free to ask any one of Jehovah's Witness. I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Brenda Jones##imported-end##

“ May the Peace that surpasses all understanding surround your family today. Reggie, thanks for helping me through my struggles and encouraging me to get help, even though I pretended not to listen... I heard you....you will always be my BROTHER - IN- LAW ... And you were right about the things u said the men in your family adore!

“ To my my friend, brother and Masonic brother may the great architect greet you. For you brought me to light, feed me knowledge. May I see you at the Light with your arm open wide saying " Lay your tools down and come break bread with me." I miss you and love you Reggie, my first Masonic mentor.##imported-begin##Brandon Garrett##imported-end##

Reggie was a close and dear friend of mine along with so many others and one day soon we will all have the opportunity to reunite with help. I hope that we take a moment and reflect on all the good times that we shared with him, my heart goes out to the family I love all of you. I really miss you Bro!
