“ Well bestie... It ain't getting no easier. I miss you soooooo much and I'm going thru so much that I need you to listen to me about. I remember you would listen to me talk for hours and then pose a single question that helps me figure out everything! So many wonderful memories of the most unconditional friendship I'd ever known... I don't know what happened your last year here but it doesn't erase all the years we did have! I love you and I pray your resting in perfect peace...

“ To Richard: You were a big brother to me. I remember the times on Spokane when I was only fifteen and you sharing your life stories oh how I looked forward to those tales with high anticipation. You were undefeatable, insurmountable and how I admired your strength. I will always remember you, my brother as one who spoke his mind and had an infectious smile and a laugh like no one other. I know we had not seen each other in quite a while but I always knew that whenever we did we would have a little "kick it" session" and catch up on old times. It was like time never passed with us and I appreciated that and the way you accepted me for who I was, your nerdy little brother who over time became a man. I am proud to have had the opportunity to have known you Rich and so I will say that you will be missed and I will say goodbye but also that I know that I will see you again one day big brother. I love you brother and may you rest in everlasting peace.##imported-begin##Derrick Jackson##imported-end##

“ I never thought I'd be saying goodbye to the one and only friend that has always shown me unconditional love and who I loved unconditionally as well.

Things may have not been the way they once were when you passed away but for 12 of the 13 years that I've known you, I have shared some of the best days of my life with you. We often told the story of how we got thru our darkest days together and how those were some of the highlights of our friendship. We made the best out of whatever the situation was and helped each other through thick and thin!!!

We've laughed, cried and debated... talked, taught each other and learned some of life's most important and most valuable lessons. You have always listened to my advice and even when the truth didn't resonate at first, you would always come to me and let me know that you "got it" and how it helped you.

I've watched you grow and Lord knows I thought you were still in the process and would be here for many years to help me grow as well but I guess you "got it" and now God has taken you from here so that you may rest.

Richard always loved it when I acknowledged his growth and he would always say, "Don't wait til I'm gone, I want my flowers now"... I pray that I was able to do that and I pray that he knew how much he was loved and would be missed.

I'm happy knowing that he found Benijah (his girlfriend), he spoke of her with high regard. My prayers are with her & his kids whom he loved very much... It is with deepest sympathy that I offer my condolences to the family and I pray that my best friend who I loved so dearly is at peace.

Love ALWAYS, Kim###imported-begin###Kimberly Dianne aka

“ I want to send my deepest condolences to his girlfriend and my cousins. I can't bare to see him like that. I will hold onto my memories. I am in such shock and disbelief and I can't seem to let this pain go. I can only imagine what you all are going through because I feel the same way. I have been having anxiety attacks since he died. I tried to prepare myself for this day, but I just can't see him like that. You are in my prayers family.##imported-begin##Dora Gaston##imported-end##
