“ Mr. Ford became my coach in 1979 and touched my life in so many ways. He was a wonderful coach but really the lessons he taught us about life went beyond running, in fact running was just a side or a means to bring out our best. By his giving example we learned generosity, by encouraging us we learned to push beyond fear and by words of praise he awakened a confidence and strength inside ourselves. We were all so lucky to have him in our lives. I want to extend my heartfelt sympathy to the entire Ford family. Aimee Landry###imported-begin##Aimee Landry###imported-end##

“ May your hearts be comforted during this difficult time. Treasure the happy memories you've stored in your heart of Mr. Ford. Death is unnatural, because this was not the purpose of our Our Grand Creator, Jehovah God. Mr. Ford can rest now. Revelations 21:3-5 encourages us: "God will wipe out every tear from your eyes, and death will be not more". That includes the tears of each and every one of you. Even Jesus says at Luke 23:43, "You will be with me in paradise". That will be a reality. We will see Mr. Ford again.##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

“ As Colette Harrell's colleagues at The Breathing Association, we would like to extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs.Ford, Colette and her family members. Mrs.Ford, at this time of sorrow, I hope you can find joy in reflecting upon the accomplishments of the fine parenting that you and Mr. Ford provided. Colette is God's gift to our agency and has dedicated herself to the service of those less fortunate. Without the strong values and faith provided by you, her parents, this gift would not be given to the world. We know your faith will sustain you all. We stand strong beside you. All our love, Marie E. Collart and staff.##imported-begin##Dr. Marie E. Collart##imported-end##
