“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Rev.21:3,4. Please read it. . I hope it will bring some comfort to you and your family in the up coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ Our deepest sympathy and prayers to all of the Sweatt Family. Let it be known that God makes no mistakes. The circle is broken at Midpoint and we will surely miss Richard's affectionate smile that he shared so freely with all. May he rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Patrick Appleby/Thomas Dixie/Midpoint Family##imported-end##

“ Stay strong Mom and Monique.
We all know that he's in a better place now.
My Dad and I loved each other unconditionally flaws and all. I know we all miss him dearly but it would be selfish of us to want him to remain here in pain. I love you Dad!!!##imported-begin##Dennis and Nejla

“ It will be the little things that you will remember like the quiet moments, the smiles, and the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these little things that help you to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. Please accept our deepest condolences. We are praying for strength and comfort for you at this time.###imported-begin##Debra Ford & Ruby Eaves###imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Sweatt family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##
